❖ Thanks for a great year !

As you may know, June is the last meeting of the year for Triangle Recorder Society. We will take July and August off for summer break, and then resume our playing meetings in September. Thanks to everyone who has participated this year. Have a restful and safe summer. Check the TRS web site for news and fall meeting schedule, TBA.

❖ Spring recital was a success

Thanks to everyone who played and attended the TRS Spring Recital on May 17. From the beautiful harmonies of the ensembles, to the recorder duets; there were many beautiful sounds to entertain the audience. Music from four centuries was played on a variety of instruments.

Thanks to Kay Bailey and Westminster Presbyterian for hosting and for the wonderful snacks, and thanks to everyone who turned out for a great afternoon of musical performances!

❖ June Business Meeting

During the TRS June meeting we will have a short business meeting to discuss several issues with members. The agenda of this meeting will be

- selection/confirmation of officers
- plans for fall and beyond
- anthology
- workshop possibilities
- scheduling meetings and locations
- special events
- marketing brainstorm: how can we attract more participants?
- open discussion of anything else members want to talk about

If you are unable to come to this meeting, please email Dwina to let us know your ideas or concerns before the meeting so that she can share your comments to the group.

Cheers,
Dwina Martin, TRS President

Judy Fox, TRS Vice President

Mountain Collegium, an informal yet intensive workshop, offers study of Medieval, Renaissance, and Baroque music, focusing on recorder, viol, and other early instruments. Featured classes include technique, improvisation, and a variety of consorts and repertoire. Students may also choose classes in folk, contemporary, Celtic, and Appalachian music. Small classes and easy access to faculty create a friendly and relaxed learning experience.

Four periods in the day provide a variety of options for recorder and viol players. Loud band, singing, and opportunities to study pennywhistle, hurdy-gurdy, mountain dulcimer, and harp give students an eclectic musical experience that brings them back year after year. Free time allows for informal music making; evenings include group playing and English country dancing with a live (and lively!) band. An inspiring faculty concert and informal student “show and tell” recital top off the week. Won't you become a part of the Mountain Collegium family this year?
